

Chief Judge Electronics (CJE) and Chief Finish Judge (CFJ) –

Quiz – TRUE or FALSE

1. The primary time is the time that is determined by a touchpad. ____
2. The back-up times are those times that are determined by the use of buttons, plunger times or watches. ____
3. A properly staffed swim meet in Canada will use both a Chief Judge Electronics (CJE) and a Chief Finish Judge (CFJ). ____
4. The official results involving a swimmer that has had their swim disqualified shall indicate the time assigned to that swimmer with a notation beside the official time stating DQ. ____
5. Swim offs are not official results that are submitted in the meet results. Swim offs are only used to break a tie. ____
6. When automatic takeover equipment is in use a Referee can only process a DQ for an early takeover if it is observed by an Inspector of Turns or Referee and documented with the electronics. ____
7. When timing to 1/1000 of a second is available, the third digit shall not be recorded or used to determine time or placement. ____
8. A guideline has been established that if each back-up time varies from the touchpad time recorded by greater than 1/10th of a second, the CJE may determine that a failure of the automatic officiating equipment has occurred. ____

Chief Judge Electronics (CJE) and Chief Finish Judge (CFJ) –

Questionnaire

1. Before a meet, the CFJ shall

- a. Meet with the Referee and review what is expected of you and review any instructions unique to the pool or session.
- b. Determine the flow of results by talking to the Referee or Meet Manager
- c. Determine how you will be made aware of swim-offs
- d. Meet with the Chief Timekeeper.
- e. All of the above

2. During the session the CJE shall:

- a. Maintain open communication with the operator, Meet Management, Referee, Chief Timekeeper and technical support.
- b. Oversee the operation of the equipment, observe the finish of each race and monitor the assignment of the official time for all swims
- c. Play an active role in the assignment of official times when semi-automatic or manual times are used.
- d. Monitor the accuracy of the Timekeepers, report concerns to the Chief Timekeeper.
- e. Ensure that the appropriate individual is made aware of malfunctioning equipment. Minor feedback can be addressed during or at the end of the session, major equipment problems should be addressed immediately.
- f. all of the above

3. When Omega Relay takeover equipment is in use, which takeover time will result in an infraction report

- a. -.04
- b. -.03
- c. -.01
- d. +.03

4. When Daktronics relay takeover equipment is in use, which takeover time will result in an infraction report.

- a. -.04
- b. -.03
- c. -.01
- d. +.03
- e. a and b only
- f. a, b and c

5. During the session the CJE should position themselves so they can

- a. Observe the finish of each race
- b. See the operation of the Automatic timing equipment
- c. Adjacent to the Meet Manager
- d. Beside the Referee
- e. a and b
- f. a, b and c
- g. all of the above

6. During the session the CFJ should position themselves

- a. On the deck beside the Referee
- b. On the deck beside the clerk of the course
- c. In a quiet place adjacent to the computer operator.

7. Before the session, the CJE shall

- a. Complete or ensure a complete system check has been completed
- b. If possible, meet with the CJE from any previous sessions and enquire about the operation of the equipment,
- c. Meet with the pool technical staff or the Automatic Officiating Equipment operator to review the set-up of the equipment. Note any communications or instructions that should be delivered to the Referee, the Chief Timekeeper or any other official prior to the start of the session.
- d. Attend the Stroke and Turns briefing
- e. Determine what system changes are required for 50's (if long course).
- f. Review the proposed operation of the scoreboard
- g. Meet with the session Referee
- h. c, e, f and g
- i. a, b, c, e, f and g
- j. all of the above

8. After the session the CFJ shall

- a. Verify with the office that they have all the results processed and posted.
- b. Address any outstanding issues before you have completed your assignment as CFJ for this session.
- c. Report to the Referee any concerns or outstanding issues.
- d. a and c
- e. a, b & c